1. The following procedure would be followed to allocate branches as per their preferences:–
 - i) After scrutiny of documents and certificates etc., the eligible candidates would be categorized as per the above mentioned categories on the basis of Inter-se-Merit of qualifying examination.
 - ii) Thereafter the merit list of sub-categories would also be prepared.
 - iii) Thereafter the nomination process will start with the candidate of the category having highest Inter-se-Merit among the toppers of sub-categories and it will be followed by the second highest ranking candidate of the toppers of remaining sub-categories and then third highest and followed by fourth topper.
 - iv) After nominating one candidate from each category the same process will be repeated again starting with the category having a candidate with next highest Inter-se-Merit.
 - v) Same process will continue by repeating steps mentioned above till all the seats are filled.
 - vi) If there is no candidate available from any sub-category, the procedure would not stop and would move further.
 - vii) In case candidate of particular category falls absent then second candidate on merit of same category will be considered
 - viii) If any candidate having higher rank comes late during the process of the counseling, then such candidate will be considered against the vacant seats available at that time only.
 - (ix) In case some or all seats of any sub-category remain vacant due to less applications or non-eligibility of candidates in that sub-category, then those seats shall go towards a general pool of all such vacant seats created from all sub-categories and shall be filled on inter-se-merit amongst all candidates in waiting from other sub-categories in which all seats are full.
2. By repeating this process, the nominations shall be made and the preference/option given by a candidate shall be taken into consideration, in accordance with order emerging out of this process.
3. After completing the above mentioned process if some seats remain vacant they will be offered to the wards of the officers/employees of Punjab Police holding President's medal for meritorious/distinguished service in order of Inter-Se-Merit and still if some seats remain vacant, they may be offered to candidates in accordance with the reservation policy issued by the Department of Personnel and Administration letter dated 21 August 1997 as per running roster point.
